CIC NEWS RELEASE FOR QUEBEC-CANADA IMMIGRATION

With a Growing Job Market, Your Future May Be In Quebec:

From now to 2015, the province of Quebec is planning to admit 50,000 new immigrations each year from over 100 countries. Individuals who are thinking of settling in Quebec will want to know about employment opportunities in the province.

Where are the most employment opportunities in Quebec?

In general, Quebec's overall labour market is favourable, but the Montreal region in particular is known for having employment opportunities across a wide range of industries. Because of this, a majority of foreign individuals choosing to settle in Quebec live in the Montreal region.

According to the Canadian government's labour forecasts, there are several employment sectors in Montreal that will be experiencing particularly strong growth. The following are a few examples of occupations that are expected to have the highest rate of job growth within the coming years: such as Information and Technology, Business & Finance, Chemist, Health and Medical, Tourism Industry, University Professors, College and Other Vocational Instructors and Administrators, Butchers, Meat Cutters and Fishmongers – Retail and Wholesale, Electrical Mechanics, Aircraft Assembly Inspectors, Construction Managers, Civil Engineers and many more...

Quebec Skilled Worker Program is not required to have work experience in a qualifying occupation. Computer programmers, engineers, accountants, and those in other occupations can all apply through this program.

We have already placed more than 125 families in Quebec-Canada under Quebec-Canada Immigration Program and they are well settled in Canada. If you want contact details of anyone, we will be happy to provide you details for your reference.

If you are interested in immigrating to Quebec-Canada permanently, we invite you to complete our free Canadian immigration assessment to determine if you qualify for Canadian Permanent Residency.
